Ход мероприятия:

(Ученики находятся в школе, в своем классе. Собравшись вместе, читают стихотворения о Сергии Радонежском. Вдруг раздается вызывающий сигнал "Skype" и на экране компьютера появляется изображение ирландской девочки Мэри)

Pupil 1: Ребята, Мэри на связи. Быстрее все сюда!

(Все подбегают к монитору компьютера)

Mary: Hello! Glad to see you! How are you?

Pupils: Hello! Fine! Thank you!

Pupil 2: Glad to see you too. How are you?

Mary: Excellent! Thanks! I've got lots to tell you! Yesterday we celebrated St Patrick's Day.

(Заставка: изображение Святого Патрика)

(В кадре появляется Джейн, сестра Мэри)

Jane: Hi, darling! Hi, everybody!

Pupils: Hi!

Jane: St Patrick is our patron. This day people wear green clothes; have a Great St Patrick's Parade! And just have a lot of fun! (Заставка: слайды празднования дня Святого Патрика в Ирландии). By the way, have you got your own Patron Saint?

Pupil 3: Yes! The Patron of our land is Sergii Radonezhsky. We are going to celebrate the 700th anniversary of the day of his birth!

Jane: Oh! Fantastic! Could you tell us about him?

Pupils: With great pleasure!

(Заставка: слайды с изображением Сергия Радонежского. За кадром голоса учеников на английском языке):

Sergius is a patron-saint of all Russia and a founder of the glorious Holy Trinity Lavra near Moscow. St. Sergius (Bartholomew) was born in 1314 in a family of a pious Rostov boyar. From his childhood he showed surprising devotion to austere practices. St. Sergius and his disciples and followers founded more than 50 monasteries in central and northern Russia.

Mary: Have you visited the monasteries?

(Видеосюжет об экскурсии в Радонеж. За кадром голоса учеников на английском языке):

Yes! We have visited some of them and are ready to tell you about these sights. We invite you to Radonezh. Radonezh is a wonderful place which is lost among thick forests. It is one of the ancient settlements which is situated on the right bank of the river Pazhy. Here, Sergius began his way to the Lord. In his childhood he had great difficulties in reading. Everyone laughed at him. One day looking for the colts Sergius met a spiritual elder. Sergius told him about his sufferings. The spiritual elder blessed the boy and from that day Sergius was able to read and write. Most of all, the boy liked churches, prayer services and reading The Holy Writ.

This monument of Sergius is considered to be the icon. Opposite the monument you can see the Preobrazhenskaya church which looks like a pearl under the blue sky.

One day Sergius (Bartholomew) decided to go to a monastery and become a monk. His parents Kirill and Mariya didn't bless him. They wanted their son to be a warrior and the head of the family. Sergius loved his parents very much so he had to obey and wait for his chance. Nowadays, Radonezh attracts people by its Holy Spring. There is a legend that there was a Sergius parents' house on the place of the spring. The spring was named after SergiusRadonezhsky. People come here to drink some holy water and recover from illnesses.

Jane: What a wonderful place! Your story is so interesting that I am looking forward to learn something more.

(Видеосюжет об экскурсии в Хотьково. За кадром голоса учеников на английском языке):

Well, let's go on our trip. Now we are in Khotkovo and there we can see The Pokrovsky Monastery which was founded in 1308. It is a historical center of Khotkovo.

But let's return to Sergius. SergiusRadonezhsky's parents were buried here. Pilgrims visit the monastery to worship his parents reverend Kirill and Mariya.

(Заставка: слайды с изображением жизни Сергия Радонежского. За кадром голоса учеников на английском языке):

After his parents' death, Sergius went to Khotkovo, where his elder brother Stephan was a monk. He persuaded him to find a more secluded place to live an ascetic life. In 1337 he built a small church in the midst of a dense forest upon Makovets hill. Thus the history of the Holy Trinity Lavra has started.

Soon Sergius stayed completely alone. Being alone he suffered from poverty and hunger. But the Lord sent him a forest friend. It was a bear. Sergius shared his bread with his new friend. Sometimes he gave away the last one to the bear. So they have lived together until people appeared in their place.

Now, the Holy Trinity Lavra of St. Sergius is a unique spiritual place on the Radonezh land closely connected with the Russian History. It was St. Sergius who blessed the Prince Dimitry Donskoy for the Kulikovo battle (1380). His two giant monks Peresvet and Oslabya followed the great warrior.

(Видеосюжет об экскурсии в Троице-Сергиеву Лавру. За кадром голоса учеников на английском языке):

After the victory of Russians over Tatars Moscow princes patronized the Holy Trinity monastery specially. In 1408 the Holy Trinity Lavra was destroyed by Edigei Tatar Khan. Later it was surrounded by a white stone wall on the same place. On the territory of the Holy Trinity Lavra we can see wonderful churches.

Jane: The architecture of the churches is fantastic! We would like to visit this place and admire its magnificent view. I am greatly impressed by the story about your Patron Saint. Thanks a lot.

Mary: It's very interesting. See you later. Bye!

Pupils: Bye!

(Слайды с фотографиями по всей экскурсии)

Pupils: Welcome to our country!
